

STATEMENT ON BILL C-14
BY THE CANADIAN CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

Today, the Government of Canada has introduced Bill C-14, An Act to amend the Criminal Code and to make related amendments to other Acts (medical assistance in dying). This proposed legislation, which responds to the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada in early 2015, will make euthanasia and assisted suicide legal and more accessible in our entire country. The Supreme Court decision and current legislative efforts are in stark contradiction to the endeavours of individuals, families and communities to counteract the dangers and sufferings of suicide – as we have seen this week in Attawapiskat, Ontario.

The teaching of the Catholic Church and the stance of the Catholic Bishops of Canada affirm the sacredness and dignity of human life. Suicide and euthanasia are contrary to the most profound natural inclination of each human being to live and preserve life. Furthermore, they contradict the fundamental responsibility that human beings have to protect one another and to enhance the quality of health and social care which every human life deserves, from conception to natural death.

Bill C-14, no matter how it may be amended, is an affront to human dignity, an erosion of human solidarity, and a danger to all vulnerable persons -- particularly the aged, disabled, infirm and sick who so often find themselves isolated and marginalized. Moreover, it is a violation of the sacrosanct duty of healthcare providers to heal, and the responsibility of legislators and citizens to assure and provide protection for all, especially those persons most at risk.

As our country faces this new moral and social threat, the Bishops of Canada renew their call to federal, provincial and territorial legislators to consistently defend and protect the lives of all, to renew efforts to guarantee accessible home care and palliative care, and to protect the conscience rights of healthcare providers and agencies refusing to be part of euthanasia and assisted suicide.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY: WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

This Sunday celebrates Jesus as “the Good Shepherd.” When announcing this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis focused on Jesus’ “lost sheep” parable in Luke. “[Who] among you,” Jesus asks, “having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?” (Luke 15:4). A reasonable answer? “No responsible shepherd who wants to keep the job!” Yet Jesus considers one lost person supremely important and suggests blaming the shepherd. The sheep didn’t “go astray,” the shepherd “lost” it. Thus, “when he does find it, he sets it on his shoulders with great joy” (15:5). That tender image of Jesus adorns the simple cross Pope Francis has always worn, the Good Shepherd gently carrying the lost sheep home on his shoulders. During this Jubilee Year of Mercy, may we, who once were lost ourselves but now are found, join Jesus in seeking, finding, and gently carrying home at least one precious lamb. If you have any free time, perhaps you'd like to knit or crochet a few items. Wool and simple patterns will be provided. More yarn is needed. NATURE DEFICIT DISORDER refers to the phrase coined by Richard Louv in his 2005 book Last Child in the Woods that human beings are spending less time outdoors resulting in a wide range of behavioral problems. It is not meant to be a medical diagnosis but rather to serve as a description of the human costs of alienation from the natural world. In recognizing these trends, some people argue that humans have an instinctive liking for nature and take steps to spend more time outdoors. Studies by other researchers throughout the world suggest physical activity and exposure to nature are important to good health and report positive impacts upon mental health and wellbeing associated with natural environments. Communing with nature can reduce sadness and negative emotions. We have many green spaces in the community. Go out and explore!

FIRST EUCHARIST: Congratulations to the young people of our parish who received their First Holy Communion this weekend. Next Sunday at the 11:00 a.m. Mass another group of children will receive this sacrament. We ask for God's blessing on these children and their families. Thank you to the teachers and our parish youth catechist, Paula Rush, for preparing these children so well.
