Rectory Fence update: as you may have noticed we have a brand-new fence surrounding the rectory. We had to replace the old one as it was rotten and very fragile. We were blessed to receive a government grant of $10,000 which fully covered our brand-new fence, which will improve our safety and security at Lourdes. We are very thankful for Danny M. for overseeing this whole project.

Our final presentation for the Year of Family Speaker series is happening soon and you are all welcome! The title of the talk is, Family Love: A Vocation and a Path to Holiness and it is being offered online on Wednesday, June 15th from 7-8:30 p.m. Our speaker will be the Most Reverend Daniel J. Miehm, Bishop of the Diocese of Peterborough and former priest and Auxiliary Bishop here in the Hamilton Diocese. Bishop Miehm will help us to look at how, through the life of the family and the love shared by its members, children learn about themselves, and which leads to the seeds of their vocation being born. The family itself then is truly a call to an important vocation where both parents and children find their path to holiness. You can register here (scroll down to the June 15th date): <https://amorislaetitia.hamiltondiocese.com/speaker-series/#register>

Gospel Reading

John 16:12-15

Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit of truth will guide us.

Background on the Gospel Reading

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.

May God grant them the grace to let their faith and love shine forth, so that they may be mentors and guides for the next generation.
2. Pope Francis' monthly intention – Families.
3. The sick and their caregivers.
4. The living and deceased members of our parish.
5. The special intentions for the members of our parish.

By volunteering, you will be responsible to say one decade of the mysteries of the Rosary every day for the coming month. If you are interested or would like more information, please sign up here <https://forms.gle/JHvwqtqB59FJRMNUb8>.
